

GUIDOBONO

NEBBIOLO D'ALBA LORETO

Roses, violets, peony and currant skin on the nose, and a skein of mineral and fruit flavors on the palate. This is pretty serious stuff, and a considerable step above what the price would suggest. Given all that, do yourself a favor and have it with some food. Anything umami will do, pan-seared chicken breast or burger, braised mushrooms etc. The wine just takes off. (For the geeks: from a hillcrest Roero vineyard, aged in large barrels, 15% new, nicely integrated, lending structure not flavor.)
